A word about Quality, Price & Value.

We live by a very simple philosophy. We strive to give you extra value for your food dollar. Not once in awhile, but day in and day out, week in, week out.

We do this with high quality food, competitive prices, friendly, efficient service, and the important extra of S&H Green Stamps.

S&H Green Stamps are, in fact, good for both of us. For us, they mean more customers; and the more customers we have, the more food we sell, the lower our prices.

And for you, Green Stamps are a genuine extra, a little bonus at the checkout counter that can translate into beautiful S&H gifts.

So, in a very real sense, shopping at our store means day to day savings for you and your family. The solid value of quality food at competitive prices... and S&H Green Stamps, too. In today's economy, that makes a lot of sense.

Sincerely yours,
Ralph T. King
